- a) to determine whether the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be approved by the Court;
 - b) to determine whether the Order and Final Judgment as provided under the Stipulation should be entered, dismissing the Complaint herein, on the merits and with prejudice, and to determine whether the release by the Class of the Settled Claims, as set forth in the Stipulation, should be provided to the Released Parties;

9. For orders issued between the date of the entry of the Preliminary Order and January 31, 2008, the Defendants shall provide by February 14, 2008 the Claims Administrator with a CD-ROM containing supplemental electronic file, in fixed length ASCII format, Microsoft Excel format or in a Microsoft Access database table format, containing the names and last known addresses of each person and their counsel, to the extent counsel appeared, who requested an impartial hearing that resulted in an Impartial Hearing Officer's order or stipulation of settlement on the record on or after the date this Preliminary Order was entered and on or before January 31, 2008. Within ten (10) calendar days of receiving such supplemental electronic file, the Claims Administrator shall cause the Settlement Notice and the Proof of Claim including the cover letter referenced in paragraph 7, substantially in the forms annexed hereto, to be mailed, by first class mail, postage prepaid, in English, to all Class Members (and their counsel, if known) identified in the supplemental electronic file.
10. Class Members may request a copy of their impartial hearing order or stipulation of settlement on the record by calling the Claims Administrators' toll-free telephone number any time before June 30, 2008. To allow the Claims Administrator to provide these requested documents, the Defendants shall, on or before February 14, 2008 provide the Claims Administrator with a CD-ROM containing, in pdf format, copies of all Impartial Hearing Officers' orders or stipulations of settlement on the record entered on or after December 13, 2000 and on or before January 31, 2008.

Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel shall, at or before the Settlement Fairness Hearing, file with the Court proof of publication of the Publication Notice.
14. The form and content of the Settlement Notice, and the method set forth herein of notifying the Class of the Settlement and its terms and conditions, meet the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled thereto.

15. In order to be entitled to Compensatory Relief, in the event the Settlement is effected in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Stipulation, each Compensatory Subclass Member shall take the following actions and be subject to the following conditions:
